

MIDDLE SCHOOL UPDATE

October 3, 2007

Aslan is on the move, and the Middle schoolers expect to meet him at the Formica Table Friday afternoon in Narnia!

The Man of the Moment is Jeff Smeenk. He has graciously volunteered to spend the night in the boy's pavilion.

Food captains take responsibility for specific items. Food captains will provide the dish and supervise the preparation during the event. Of course, middle schooler food captain volunteers are subject to parental approval. Here's a list of food captain volunteers. If this isn't what you expected, call me.

We anticipate 16 to 20 participants. Currently 18 Middle Schoolers are on the attendant list, 14 lasses and 4 dudes.

For connections during the overnight, the church phone number is 745-3822. The church phone also rings in the Carrick's home. My cell phone is 373-8746.

I hope to see everyone Friday, whenever people can arrive after they gather their things at their homes after school. Parents are welcome any time throughout the event.

By the way, Maria updated the Middle School area on the church website so check it out! We'll help sort pictures and write captions... <http://www.palmerlogchurch.org>.
